

Assignment 5

1. Display all currently running processes.
2. Display processes belonging to the current user.
3. Find the PID of particular process. Eg Firefox
4. Kill the process for Firefox.
5. Monitor process in real time.
6. You are the Linux System administrator of a server running OpenSSH. Configure and secure the server according to the following requirements:
 - a. Ensure the SSH daemon is running and starts automatically after reboot.
 - b. Prevent direct SSH login by the root user.
 - c. Configure a key-based authentication for an authorized user.
 - d. Validate the SSH Configuration before restarting the daemon.
 - e. Restart the SSH service and verify its status.
 - f. Display the System logs and demonstrate the SSH login attempts.