

Windows Assignment -3

1. Configure the Windows Server.

Computer Name: DC01

Ip Address: Assign static Ip

Install the Active Directory Domain. Install the Active Directory Domain Services (AD DS) role on the Windows Server. Promote the server to a Domain Controller. Create a new forest with the domain name: tfsi

Restart the Server after completing the domain controller configuration. Verify that the server is functioning as a Domain controller.

2. Create a new group named TFSI-Students

Create the two users. Emp1 and Emp2. Assign suitable password for the user. Users must change password at next login.

3. Write few lines about database folder, log file folder and SYSVOL folder.

4. Difference between workgroup and a domain.

5. What is the role of DNS in an Active Directory Domain?

6. What is the use of DSRM Password? When and how to use it.

7. The Windows 10 client can ping 192.168.10.10, but it cannot join the tfsi domain. What configuration should you check first? Explain why.

8. Emp1 has been created in Active Directory but cannot log in to the Windows 10 client using a domain account. List two possible reasons.